Union Café is situated in Marylebone Lane very close to the fashionable shops in Marylebone High Street and within walking distance of Bond street tube station.

Atmosphere - The restaurant is a modern, lively and bright Californian-style restaurant with large windows and an open-plan kitchen so you can watch the chefs at work. The stripped wooden floor, tables and chairs give a smart but casual feel. Buzzy at lunchtime and more laid-back in the evening. The restaurant is fully air-conditioned.

The Food is interesting and delicious - contemporary British with a Mediterranean slant, including linguine with tiger prawns, mussels and chilli, homemade crab cakes and roast rack of lamb.

The Wine – there is an interesting wine list with plenty of old and new world choices at incredibly reasonable prices. They are all sold at retail shop prices, not the usual restaurant prices. The wines start at £16.00 per bottle for Macon Blanc Villages and £16.00 per bottle for Cotes du Rhone . (See Wine List)

Parties – We can accommodate parties in the Union Café of up to 16 people.
