Corporate events

Three separate bars and a club offer a flexible and imaginative approach to events. Abacus has a distinct style and atmosphere, providing the ideal background for a variety of events.

Abacus is ideal for all corporate events and hospitality requirements: from breakfast for 8, daytime meetings for 80, or a large scale company party for 850 until 3am.

Create your event around the contemporary and stylish design of each area, or use the space as a blank canvas to brand and design to your requirements.

Our event sales team will plan and support your bespoke event in consultation with the highly skilled management team.

To enquire about a corporate event with over 50 persons and / or events with full event requirements please contact our sales manager, Natalie Haake on:
